

Biosynergy, Inc.

Biosynergy Announces Retirement of James Schembri from Board

Elk Grove Village, Illinois (July 11, 2017) – Biosynergy, Inc. (“Biosynergy”) announced today that James F. Schembri resigned and retired from Biosynergy's Board of Directors effective July 6, 2017. Fred K. Suzuki, Chief Executive Officer of Biosynergy, commented." Mr. Schembri has served on the Board of Directors since 1990, and has been a valuable member of the Board throughout his tenure. Mr. Schembri will be sorely missed."

During his tenure on the Board of Directors of Biosynergy, Mr. Schembri served as the Company's sole independent director and headed Biosynergy's Audit Committee and Compensation Committee. Mr. Schembri's decision to resign and retire was not due to any disagreements with the Company on any matter relating to the Company's operations, policies, or practices.

About Biosynergy, Inc.

Biosynergy, Inc. is a leading manufacturer of quality control products specifically designed to assist the medical, food, laboratory, and industrial markets in making sure they distribute and deliver safe and effective products to the general public.

This news release may contain forward looking statements within the meaning of Section 27-A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21-E of the Securities Act of 1934, as amended. The Company's actual results could differ materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements, as a result of the risks associated with the Company's business, changes in general economic conditions, and changes in the assumptions used in making such forward-looking statements.